Elisha Davidson And The Shamir (Elisha Davidson Trilogy)

Synopsis

The final Nine Day count-down is ON and the most cataclysmic day on earth is nearly here. Elisha finally knows what he has to do. He must enter the dark time of an ancient and lost world and try to receive one of its most powerful gifts. A gift that will attract armies of light and dark forces who will be watching his every step and are determined to stop him. The greatest masterminds of his generation will be brought together, willingly and unwillingly, to join forces with Elisha in his quest, shattering their veils of secrecy and revealing that what appears to the natural eye is not always the reality. Elisha Davidson and the Ispaklaria is a fantasy adventure novel based on esoteric truth. It draws only on ancient non-fiction manuscripts, dating as far back as 5777 years ago, and exposes the most extraordinary and cryptic teachings of the human race. What a riveting roller coaster! This last book in the trilogy really goes out with a big bang. I loved every minute reading it and recommend the entire series for all ages and backgrounds. This is a story that is so mystifying & unique, it's in a fantasy genre of its own. - Tamar Yonah Israel News Talk Radio.com

M. R. (Rhonda) Attar (nee Antelman) was born and educated in the U.S. (M.S. TV/Radio) and made Aliyah to Israel where she became a leading figure in the Israeli television industry launching ten TV channels in Israel and four worldwide. Mrs. Attar and her husband Rabbi Meir Attar are the co-founders and directors of the Tomer Devorah Beit Knesset, 24/7 Beit Midrash, and Kolel Chatzot in Kochav Ya'akov dedicated to V'ahavta L'rayeicha Kamocha (Love your Neighbor like yourself).

Worthy book to read. Thinking it's 5777 Tamuz and approaching Av. This truly is magical book that combines reality with other reality. Children and adult will enjoy equally reading this.

I loved reading this book! It kept you on your toes and had a hard time putting the book down!

And the door is opened for another trilogy, or two... Please write more!

Beautifully written and exciting to follow adventure for the entire family!

When I was younger, I loved books like The Hobbit and the Lord of the Rings, and anything having to do with fantasy. I tried reading Harry Potter, but it didn't hold my interest. My only complaint about the Elisha Davidson series is that this book wasn't written decades ago when I was younger! I am happy to say though, that even reading this as an adult, I loved it. It was mystical, suspenseful and best of all, it pulled from Jewish Biblical history, and aren't TRUE stories always the BEST? I give this trilogy 5 stars PLUS!!! :-)

I just have one question.... When are they going to make the movie!!!!This was the last book in the Elisha Davidson trilogy, and it all acclimated here in the climax. The suspense, drama, and even funny parts of this book take one on a roller coaster of a ride. It was extremely exciting, BUT, the best part is, is that the story is based on true, ancient wisdom from Jewish mysticism, and did not need to take from silly make-believe sources. This is why it was so good! I bought these as Bar and Bat Mitzvah gifts, something I know they will enjoy!

M R Attar really gets the reader excited with an entertaining read that propels the reader to go deeper and deeper. This third book in her trilogy prepares any independent thinker to want more...more spirituality, knowledge, and understanding of life's issues and one's self. I highly recommend it!

Getting back to Elisha was like revisiting a very much loved friend. Once again Rhonda Attar has succeeded in creating a wonderfully entertaining story, full of adventure,suspense and magic. Truly a wonderful read and can't wait for more!
