Customer Reviews

I like cats and foxes so I thought this was a cute story. It is short and sweet and easy to read. There are a couple of color pictures but not many. They look like simple clip art. The story is about a cat who becomes friends with a fox. They visit each others homes but don't feel comfortable there. The lesson is basically that even though they are different they can still be friends and have fun together. That is what this entire story is about actually. So very short and simple.

I read book this author and I can say that I adore book for kinds and this book really inspires my imagination. This book is full of beautiful pictures and kids stories, it is great for bedtime stories for my children who adores these type of stories. I read my children last night and they wanted to find more. But my recommendation for all who wants a good bedtime story.

A fun little kids story which also teaches a valuable life lesson about trust and honesty. The real trick to helping kids grow and learn, is to weave lessons together with fun and this book does a great job of that. 5 Stars!

This book is horrible. The title character's name suddenly changes, then changes back. The grammar is bad, from "Me and" to changing multiple times from present to past and back again.

This book has an adorable sleep time story. It keeps my little ones delighted and excited. It's an enchanting, agreeable and simple to peruse. I truly like it since it permits my children to determine life's lessons as well as to figure out how to peruse effortlessly. It's unquestionably an extraordinary book for youngsters.

If you are a lover of children's literature, you have to add this book to your collection. This is a beautiful story with good values for the kids and young at heart. The author is gifted with words and the illustrations are incredible. Buy this book and you won't be disappointed.

Not very exciting and kids didn't like the bones and thought Timmy was going to eat Mimi. Stared out well and understand the honesty part but didn't think it developed the story enough to get that across

I just got this and it worked out perfectly! I read this to my friends kid's and we had a blast. A quick, fun and cute read to share with your kids, nieces, nephews, grand children, and so on.
