Customer Reviews

So helpful and showed us a side of Rio that I've never seen before. It gave us all the means to explore the city safely and confidently in a way which was a lot less touristy. suggestions on hiring the local bike hire and walks that took us through some really great areas. we ate great food and came back with some wonderful stories. really good buy.

How I wish time will let me travel to this lovely place Rio de Janeiro. This book brought me there already as it offers you a very detailed information about places where you can visit there. A well organized book with all the traveller must know. I definitely recommend this to anyone traveling there. You have to use these book to travel in Rio. Have a lot of detail about places, that a great way to move around and see all of the important things and get to see great places inside Rio. Also good for when you are just looking for simple things in a new place restaurant, hotel, shops and they are all ranked. A great travel guide book to bring when you are in Rio. Everything you want to know about the place are all in this book. You will not get lose when you are in Rio. Grab this guide book.
