RNWMP: Bride For Elijah (Mail Order Mounties Book 2)

Synopsis

What does a wealthy, pampered woman from the city have in common with a simple Mountie on the frontier? Nothing—and that’s exactly why Miss Hazel Hughes decides they need each other. Rose Lambert has grown up in the wealthy society of Ottawa, but longs for a life where people will respect her for who she is, and not what her family’s status can give them. After her fiancé leaves her reputation in tatters, she knows she needs to get away somewhere for a fresh start—somewhere where she will have a say in her own life. Elijah Thorpe didn’t think he needed a wife, believing it wouldn’t be fair for a woman to marry a Mountie, only to be left a widow if something happened. But when Miss Hazel Hughes decides a man should be married, he soon finds out that she will get her way. Before he knows it, he has a woman on her way out to British Columbia to become his bride. When they meet, he soon realizes the woman he’s been bound to isn’t quite what he’d expected. What will happen when two strangers are brought together, unsure of their decision to marry? And when the past catches up and threatens to destroy the shaky foundation they’ve started to build, can their love withstand the forces trying to keep them apart?

Customer Reviews

A young woman who has been brought up in the family of the wealthiest family in town but has no say in her own life, Rose is being forced to marry a man her father wants to bring into his law firm. When that man compromises her reputation by forcing himself on her so they can be discovered and forced to marry right away when he knows Rose wants nothing to do with him, Rose makes her escape to marry a Mountie she has never met. Rose finally meets Elijah, and is overwhelmed by how sparse her life is going to be as compared to all the luxuries she has been surrounded with. However, she sees what a kind and caring man Elijah is, and does her best to try to fit in and learn to be a wife in the wilderness. Monty Moose plays a significant role in this tale, and will help both Rose and Elijah come to terms with her past and their future. Most stories that you enjoy always seem to be too short, and this one is no exception. I am enjoying reading about British Columbia and the Mounties.

Rose comes from wealth. She has a high society life. But when her hand is forced by a citified dandy, she decides to become a Mounties wife. Thank goodness Monty Moose is always lurking around to keep that dandy away!! must say, as I've read there books, I'm finding myself falling in love with Canada and the moose!

Rose was not happy in her home. Her father told her she was to Marry he's buisness part n we. Robert was not c a nice guy. He tried to put Rose in a compromising position so she would have to Marry him. She decided to Marry a monkey, Elijah.

This story has adventure, mystery, humor and love. A very entertaining book. I highly recommend you follow these Mounties and the ladies who travel to join them into happy ever after. Happy reading.Ã Â Â'Â•Ã Â Â'Â•Ã Â Â'Â•Ã Â Â'Â•Ã Â Â'Â•

Elijah n Rose getting to know each other was hilarious, loving, scary, n sweet. They came from totally different backgrounds, yet the love they find in each other is heartfelt.

Kay Dawson is one of my favorite authors. The characters come alive and you really get to know them. This series is a wonderfully written, continuous story. Please read it, it is an excellent read!!!!

Love really does make things better and maybe Monty should be a mountie! He does save the day on more than one occasion! And so what if Rose can't cook, Grandma can.

Another wonderful mail order bride story. Love the character development. The trials and problems facing moving west. Love how Monty helps everyone.
