His applied research has focused on evaluation research of social service delivery in elementary schools and of teen pregnancy prevention and intervention services. He has served in various elected and appointed positions for the American Sociological Association, the Society for Applied Sociology, and the Midwest Sociological Society.

Professors Keep Using This Edition! Easy to follow, easy to read. Has terms and key phrases highlighted at the end of each chapter. Explains concepts very well. Used this book or Sociology 002. Got an A.

Came in good condition

As a sociology major, this was a great book. Any student needs to put in the effort to absorb material, but the way the information is presented here makes it very pleasurable to learn from this book.

This textbook did meet my expectations and I learned and gained knowledge about what a social problem is.

Great book.

Good condition
