Guide is loaded with info and suggestions, tips. I have this guide and Rick Steve's guide to Italy. Love them both and I recommend getting both. DK is very comprehensive and has everything on every little city. Rick Steve's is more readable and more focused on what to see and what to skip.

This book has EVERYTHING you need to understand where to go, what to eat and where to stay! Invaluable! Love the street diagrams. No way to get lost with this book!

Great Pictures. Information seemed dated. Large heavy book. Better information available in the Fodors book which is a pound less. The pictures are beautiful and this would make a good coffee table or bookcase book, but not a good book to travel with. I couldn't find operating hours quickly for attractions. It annoyed me that I could not find the info in a logical place.

The color images in this book are just beautiful. Overall, I'm very pleased with all of the clear and very helpful info included in this guidebook. I only wish the book was a little lighter in weight.

Nice guide to Italy, very helpful for planning study abroad for our college student. Excellent value for the price.

I have an earlier edition and wanted the newer version because of the currency change. I got just what I needed. Everything about the book is great and I enjoyed reading all about Italy with upgrades all over again. I am going to compare aspects of my trip to travel info in the book and make arrangements that will enhance my vacation. Thanks

Very nice, love DK books for their suggestions/explanations/pictures/history. However, this book was heavier than I would like for travel, but not too heavy to not use.
