Pop-Up Peekaboo: Bedtime

Synopsis

Join Big Bunny, Little Ted, Quacky Duck, and their friends as they play a game of hide and seek before turning in for a good night's rest in Pop-up Peekaboo: Bedtime. The latest addition to DK's Peekaboo series, these books feature big, bold pop-ups that jump from the pages when babies and toddlers lift the flaps. As young children explore the spreads, they'll learn to recognize, name, and describe different objects, providing a perfect early learning opportunity and fun way to build book-handling skills.

We've had the Peekaboo Farm.pop-up book since my baby girl was around 4 months. After 6 (I think) she learned to pull the pop-ups and loved it still more. So I bought the Sofie La Giraffe and the Bedtime, and the pop-ups are even more interesting. My husband and I enjoy reading these books for our 8 months little girl, and they are always her preferred when she chooses a book to one of us read for her. Once she took the book by herself and pulled away one pop-up picture, but it can be fixed with glue, I guess.

LOVE this peekaboo series, the creators are absolutely brilliant with how they can make realistic popups. My baby loves the bedtime one, farm, and trucks. Started pulling open the pages at 6 mo and would complain if I put it down. Pretty sturdy, he pulled a duck off of the farm one but otherwise the rest have withstood his destructiveness..

My 2 year old twins love this Bedtime story pop-up book. It's really cute and it's not too wordy so young toddlers pay attention all the way through the book. I'm getting all of the other DK books. I already have Meow, Woof Woof and Christmas edition too. My kids love them all. I enjoy reading these books to them too.

Cute book, but many of the popups are very flimsy and not well attached to the page -- our baby ripped them right off the first time we read the book. The dimensions make the book a bit large for a toddler to hold.

My toddlers love these books, but they love the pictures so much that they rip the pop ups out. They're their favorite books, however!

My little granddaughter is deaf. She likes pop-up books because it's visual.

Adorable pictures. My toddler loves to read this before bedtime each night and point to all of the animals!

Great book for children.
