Saw Nick Cave play in Brighton , where i live , in oct .Yes , i felt his heart beat ! No really ! I had my hand on Nick Caves heart , kept it there til I really felt it beating , it was one of the most profound moments of my life . when he sang to me i felt like Mary when the angel offers her the lilly , and the lilly was Art , and the call was to fulfill myself as an artist .The book is pretty good too . I keep it in the toilet , sorry thats not v.poetic i guess , but i have a daily choice between Nick Cave and Ted Hughes , go in there for a piss and still there like twenty minutes later .just buy it !

Yeah you could just look up most of these on the Internet but it's nice to have it all in one place when ever you want to preuse some one the best lyrics in the biz! And who isn't sick of staring at screens.

I knew most of the songs already but read this in conjunction with Sinner Saint: True Confessions and it was a great reference point.

Must have for all Nick Cave listeners/followers. Great to have an updated printing. All lyrics right up to and including "PUSH THE SKY".

A must for every Nick Cave fan.

This is a very comprehensive collection of Cave's lyrics.

Amazing!!

It's Nick Cave how could you go wrong!
