No Ordinary Day

Synopsis

Eight year old Ibrahim and friends win a Quran competition, where the prize sees them scoring tickets to watch an exciting football game after their class is paid a visit by Hakeem Mohammed, a star football player from the California Spartans. Hakeem Mohammed and the California Spartans are in New York City for one of the most anticipated football games of the season. Ibrahim and friends unite with Hakeem in the locker room to meet the team before the big game. Though their meetings with Hakeem were brief, he instilled a life long impression before going on to star in one of the most memorable games in football. This story unfolds in No Ordinary Day, the first book from 'Childhood Champions', a new series of stories about a group of Muslim children in New York City and their daily adventures.

Customer Reviews

As a Christian, it is important to understand the whole and all within it when it comes to our cultures, religions and more. I bought this book for my 10 year old son to help him understand this colorful world in a palatable manner. He finished the book in 15 minutes! He loved it and said he's "glad that he knows it's important to respect everyone ". Thanks for creating a beautiful vehicle to spread love and awareness.

A wonderfully entertaining book with a positive message for Muslim youth. I loved it.

George I enjoyed reading your book and anxiously wait for book 2.

I purchased this book and gifted it to my daughter. She has had many questions regarding Islam being that American society paints this religion as evil. We are a non-Muslim family and this book truly helps me create great dialogue regarding the topic of religion and how we are all still children of God regardless of what name you may give him. This is a great book, and I can't wait for the rest of the series!

Bought this book for my kids. Awesome book. Really appreciate the new perspective in Islamic Story books by Mr Green.

Very cool book. Funny, entertaining and a great message for kids of all ages. Highly recommended!

This book is a great read. My Kids keep reading it over and over again. Our family shared awesome dialogue about Islam. I think I will get more as gifts at the mosque
