Customer Reviews

very informative

was very informative and helpful

Perfect pocket guide. Very comprehensive and detailed.

Excellent travel guide to Dublin very helpful

Very useful content

Good, but not great.

Lonely Planet almost always does a good job with their guidebooks, and this one is no exception. It is concise, to the point and very current. All the "must sees" are thoroughly reviewed, as are the more out-of-the-way sights and experiences. I bought the Kindle edition, as it is most convenient for me to have it on my iPad Mini while traveling. While traditional paper guidebooks are much easier to use, in my opinion, they are bulky and take up space. Some of the travel books I've purchased for my Kindle in the past were almost unusable in that format, as quickly switching from one section to another or finding a specific reference was almost impossible. I'm pleased to find that this Lonely Planet edition is a substantial improvement, with easy-to-use links between sections and to good maps. Still not as easy as a traditional paper book, but considerably better than earlier Kindle creations. Pocket Dublin is a thorough and good reference, that I will put to use during an upcoming trip.
