Synopsis

These two classics by #1 New York Times bestselling author Nora Roberts prove that home is where your heart is. Song of the West Former world-class gymnast Samantha Evans's sole purpose for being in Wyoming is to help her sister through a difficult pregnancy. So when she meets handsome Jake Tanner, she wills herself to resist the intense attraction between them. After receiving the offer of a lifetime from her former coach, Samantha feels torn between the new opportunity in California and her growing desire for Jake. When a sudden blizzard strands Samantha at Jake's home for three days, their mutual passions flare, but Samantha still isn't sure if she should follow her dreams...or follow her heart. Unfinished Business Vanessa Sexton used to know what she wanted. Her dreams of glamour and fame were out there, waiting. But at twenty-eight, nothing comes easy. Not even going home. She misses her mother, but can't even say the word mom. She needs time and space to sort things out, but rational thought is impossible when she runs into Brady Tucker, her first love—her only love. Old passions soon resurface, but Vanessa's unsure about the future. How can she give herself to someone else when she's still figuring out who she is?

Nora Roberts is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of more than 200 novels. She is also the author of the bestselling In Death series written under the pen name J. D. Robb. There are more than 400 million copies of her books in print.

I just finished listening to these two wonderful stories by Nora Roberts. I enjoyed them both, but "Unfinished Business" was my favorite. I found myself cheering "Van" on to a happy conclusion. I would strongly recommend these books to Nora Roberts fans- you will not be disappointed.

Love only the pianist and doctor's story.....fun romance!

Good story
