...I am so happy that a non-Dominican, Dr. Joseph L. Borkson, loves my country as much as I do. This book will make anyone who is interested in knowing about the Dominican Republic a very interesting and charming read. --Oscar de la Renta
The Dominican Republic is a country I have fallen in love with, not only for its beauty but for the warmth of her people. Joseph Borkson has written the most wonderful book capturing the essence of this unique country and is a must read for an insight into the opening chapters of American history. You, too, will fall in love with Santo Domingo. --Bunny Williams, New York designer

Joseph L. Borkson is a physician who practices and resides in Philadelphia. He has made countless trips to the Dominican Republic in search of her history, her culture and her enchanting places. His previous book was Philadelphia, an American Paris.

Wonderful. was bought for my mother which come the island in question. We had books on the country my father comes but not her. As it was a Christmas gift, I had to wait to see the response was the same as mine. Upon unwrapping she had a hard time putting it down. Even after opening up her other gift, she went right back to the book. Wants to order copies for her family as well. Best surprise gift ever.

To have Oscar de la Renta's approval on this book says it all! I could not put this book down once I started reading it. Joseph Borkson creates a brilliant picture of the Dominican Republic. I feel as if I have traveled there - viewing its architecture, talking with the locals and learning about all of the unique qualities that make this wonderful country so rich in history and culture.
