Customer Reviews

Thought I was buying a kids book, from a kind of religious perspective. The pictures are black and white and it's all about the life Saint Patrick had before going to Ireland as a bishop. So basically the opposite of everything I was looking for in a book about Saint Patrick

good good keep it up

Perfect for children aged 4-9. The story is told beautifully and concentrates on the character of a true saint. I'm glad saints as role models are coming back into fashion with the surge in interest in Waldorf education.

Even my 3 yr old enjoyed this book. I loved being able to find out the Christian basis for this great preacher. I am Protestant and still thoroughly enjoyed this book and plan to use it every year.

A little wordy for my 6y/o but they did a good job of making it kid friendly otherwise.

I love it!! It is definitely what we need our children to learn about-God's awesome love for all of us no matter where or what type of situation we are in he can get us through it all with his power that is very real. The children will know where the holiday truly came from and why we celebrate this wonderful saint.

As a Reading Teacher, this book is a great read aloud for my students to understand and enjoy.

This was a great little book to read with my kids. We had to cover it over a few nights because they have a short attention span, but I liked to story!
