Customer Reviews

If I would have paid for this I would have been mad. It has some interesting things but...I'm just glad it was free.

The Girl's Guide to Beautiful Makeup Author is obviously very opinionated and uneducated, waste of time and money. You have a lot better luck going on youtube and learning on there. Make up is very personal and there are no rules or guidelines, every one sees makeup differently and has there own opinions. Its was obviously the author was very uneducated when she said loose power gave more coverage than pressed, when pressed worker is usually foundation powder which is made to be medium to full coverage generally unless it's transparent which is not very common for pressed but most loose powder in transparent or only very lightly tinted to avoid a white cast in flash photography. Also the majority of people agree that rarely should the brushes that some with makeup should be used but again it's all up to preference. I could go on for hours about this but to save everyone time ill just say, I really don't recommend this book instead I recommend this video for beginners, (...)
