Such a dry book

I bought this version for a class that requested the previous version. I emailed the prof. and he encouraged me to get this version. I used the table of contents to figure out which chapters were the equivalent in the previous book. I found that this one came in more helpful for essay writing and discussion posts. The chapters are more in depth and I wasn't using the same quotes as my classmates which led to higher grades.

Cyndi has illucidated the virtues and ethical dilemmas that underly criminal justice theory. We have adopted the text in an undergraduate course.

Outstanding experience! Will rent textbooks next semester as well.
