BLOOD BOND 12 continues the story of blood brothers Matt Bodine and Sam Two Wolves as they find themselves involved in a Texas range war. New Jersey hired killers gunning for the sheriff, Seymour Standish, show up, and then Mexican revolutionaries attack. Not surprisingly, the town of Sweet Apple and its citizens are in an uproar. Varying vocal quality, modulation, and tone, the narrators maintain a solid consistency as they convey age, gender, and ethnic differences. Sound effects and music help sustain the story's atmosphere. The smooth production intensifies the tension and emotions of the hardscrabble and sometimes-romantic life of the Old West. This dramatized presentation enhances an enjoyable adventure tale. S.C.A. © AudioFile 2009, Portland, Maine [Published: MAY 2009] --© AudioFile 2009, Portland, Maine [Published: MAY 2009]

Great story. I really enjoyed this book and am amazed at the way they are able to find new ways to tell stories without retelling the story lines.

I really enjoyed this book. It is a very good read. Lots of action and humor. I couldn't put the book down. I would recommend this book to anyone.

All I can say is that it was a good book, and well worth what I paid for it. William Johnstone like Louis L'Amour could sure spin a yarn.

Any one who likes western sagaGreat story very good characters some dramatics during the story to keep it interesting Loved it!!! These guys are great! Can't wait for another saga!! Wish these guys were real because there isn't many men around these days like these two....

Awesome!!!

Great read.
