Susan Lingo is the author of more than 55 books for children and teachers, including My Good Night Bible, My Good Night Prayers, and Bedtime with Night-Light from Standard Publishing. She is a former elementary school educator with more than 15 years experience working with children. Susan resides in Loveland, Colorado.

This was bought for a shower gift. They are a bit hard to find now and a little pricey, but worth the search and the money. My daughter and son-in-law received one when their first child was born 11 years ago and have used it with each of their four children. What a wonderful way to end the day. The "ritual" aspect of the book is a wonderful good night time.

What a good book for younger children (my granddaughter is 4) to help them get in a peaceful frame of mind for sleep! The little firefly, "Nightlight" repeats the same format in every story (quiz time, prayer, then sleep). Good stories and illustrations, only disagreement is sometimes showing a more cartoon format for pictures of Christ.

Love this book and so does my 2 year old daughter! She really loves the bedtime song before we do the story. I like how there are questions, a prayer, and word of the night at the end. Definitely would recommend to parents who are wanting a really good bedtime bible story book. And it gives you really good bonding time with your children.

Perfect, thanks

This is a great book for my toddler who is 2. It has colorful pictures and animals on almost every page. She loves animals, so she can point them out when we go to new stories. Occasionally she will repeat the prayer with me. Most of all I think it teaches her about God and the lessons He has for us, in a simple way. Love it. Would recommend to any chirsitan mom.

This was a favorite of both my boys. Great pictures and fun, rhyming type of text. Love it!

Fantastic Book. My 3 years old daughter absolutely loves it and looks forward to reading it every night. Will definitely recommend it to friends.
