Was okay

Sorry you sent me the wrong book. I asked for Mary Monroe, you sent me Mary Alice Monroe. Plus the book wasn't nearly as good as the Mary Monroe books. The book was written by a 5 yr old. Poor quality writing. You probably STILL haven't done anything to insure it doesn't happen again with the similar names. After 3 pages, I knew it was a mistake. Very dissatisfied. I had to keep it anyway because it wasn't worth paying to send it back but VERY DISSATISFIED.

I bought this book because I liked some of the author's previous books. This book...not so much. I had to literally force myself through it. Don't get me wrong, it has a good message and all but I was waiting for the climax and it just didn't happen for me. Crazy white girl just didn't really live up to its title. I let my 16yr old read it, and she said it was just "ok". It has a positive message, and could be an inspiration to troubled youth but other than that, I really wouldn't bother lending this book to anyone for entertainment purposes.

I ordered this book by accident but decided I would read it since I paid for it. I was thinking this book was by Mary Monroe that wrote God Don't Like Ugly. When I read it I was very disappointed. It just wasn't that good at all.

This book leaves you emotional, but wanting to read more to see what comes of the characters. I never read something that could relate to so many different peoples lives. I would recommend you read this book and have tissue handy.

Great book for young folks to read. I really enjoyed this book and would recommend it to all teens and young adults.

I think this book could be an inspiration to anyone going through a situation whether you are black or white young or old. Everyone will take something from this book

This was a great read. I bought it thinking it was a different author but I was surprised and intrigued. I passed it to my daughter and I don't like sharing my kindle but it was worth it!
