Around Atlanta With Children: A Guide For Family Activities

Synopsis

A comprehensive guide to activities the whole family can enjoy! Are you looking for the perfect weekend or rainy day activity for children? Authors Denise Black and Janet Schwartz explored the great city of Atlanta and the surrounding area and compiled a thorough guide of activities from amusement parks to museums to entertain and educate children of all ages. The authors visited each location with their children to give you complete information on each attraction including directions, admission costs, hours of operation, and special items of interest. Now in its sixth edition, this essential guidebook for parents, grandparents, teachers, and childcare providers has been completely updated. As their children have grown older, the authors have made an effort to include the views and interests of older as well as younger children. Information includes: • Complete index • Major attractions • Museums and Historical Sites • Science and Nature • Performing Arts • Sports and Recreation • Classes and Summer Programs • Storytelling, Bookstores, and Libraries • Festivals and Special Events • Day Trips • Shopping and Hobbies • Farmers Markets and Pick Your Own • And much, much more! So take this book in one hand, your child's hand in the other, and walk, drive, run, and laugh all around the wonderful city of Atlanta!

JANET SCHWARTZ earned a B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and a law degree from Emory Law School. She lives in Decatur, Georgia, with her husband and two children. DENISE BLACK earned a B.A. from the University of California at San Diego and a M.A. from San Diego

State College. She is a former teacher and currently lives with her husband and two sons in Decatur, Georgia. Denise Black and Janet Schwartz are also the authors of ETHNIC ATLANTA: The Complete Guide To Atlanta's Ethnic Communities.

I have all of the books of this sort and they all have their merits, but this one is the most comprehensive. There are reminders of the classic events and locations and many surprising suggestions. These are frequently the most memorable. Great book.

Are you about to spend the summer with the kids? Is Dad about to have the kids by himself for a week? Do you know DINKs (Dual Income No Kids) about to become SITCOMs (Single Income, The Child, Oppressive Mortgage)? GET THIS BOOK!!! This book has been a staple of Metro Atlanta area parents for over a decade. This 6th edition (2001) was well researched and updated. There is even a section on future things to do (i.e. the Atlanta Aquarium and others). The authors share lessons from their experiences in taking kids to Atlanta attractions and share stories that others have shared. You will find out things you never knew about the Atlanta area (did you know one of the largest Kangaroo Reserves outside of Australia is just north of the metro area?). As picking our own produce was a cherished childhood memory, I would like to see more in the "U-Pick" Farms section. They made minor references to one web page, but left out many of the staple U-Pick and kid friendly farms in area. More on the North Georgia apple country would be great too. Janet and Denise, keep up the good work!

This handbook is the most extensive information I've found in one place. I refer to it all year when I want to plan activities for my child. It is a wonderful resource, and every parent should have one. I've lived in Atlanta all my life, and I had no idea that there were so many fun things to do that I didn't even know about. It also had a list of great free things to do. Definitely a must for all parents!
