Kay Arthur is a four-time Gold Medallion award-winning author, member of NRB Hall of Fame, and beloved international Bible teacher. She and her husband, Jack, cofounded Precept Ministries International to teach people how to discover truth through inductive study. Precept provides teaching and training through study books, TV and radio programs, the Internet, and conferences in over 180 countries and 70 languages. Janna Arndt, coauthor of the Discover 4 Yourself® series, is a Precept trainer who conducts workshops to help people use the interactive Discover 4 Yourself® Bible Studies in Sunday schools, homeschool environments, and Christian schools. Janna's heart is for children to know and love God's Word. Scoti Domeij's passion is studying God's Word. She is the author of Wrong Way, Jonah and Favorite Bible Heroes. She has written educational curriculum for children, teens and adults. Scoti contributed to Mommy Diaries and her articles have appeared in The New York Times, Contemporary Christian Music, Southwest Art, Single Adult Ministry Journal, Focus on the Family magazine and other parenting magazines. Scoti writes a monthly solo parenting column in Colorado Springs Kids magazine.

I am using this study with my 3 granddaughters this summer, and they are both enjoying, and learning from it. The interactive nature of study keeps them interested, and it is helping them learn to study the Bible for themselves. The advertised age range is good, although it has been a challenge to help them flip back and forth from the front of the book to the back (where the scripture is printed out for them). Some 8 yr olds couldn't handle it, and even the 10 yr old definitely needs my assistance to understand instructions, so adult supervision is needed; don't just hand it to them and expect them to do it on their own.

This is my daughters project for over the summer (4th grade in the fall). The school system has her the rest of the year so I felt it was my turn to help guide her to something lasting and that's God's word. The first day she didn't really care for it but days 2, 3, & 4 she was up before I and working on it herself and showing / telling me of all that she learned. Currently she is still working on it; takes about 10-15 mins. per day Mon - Fri. and everytime I ask her how it's going her eyes light up and is happy to share what she is learning. Very thankful for this book and hoping she may want to do another during the school year!

We love this. I am using it with my 11 year old and 9 year old twins. We have really enjoyed starting our days with this study.

I bought this book as a bible study for my son and I to do together. The lessons and teaching are awesome. He was able to grasp the concepts and biblical teaching and apply it to his life with little direction from me. I would highly recommend this book as something to do alongside your child. I don't feel like you would be able to let your child do independently unless they were at the very upper end of the age recommendation. The main reason I am giving this book four stars is because at the end of each chapter they have optional activities for your child to do. Sounds innocent enough until you actually read them. Some examples are: put together a play to show the sailors tossing Jonah into the sea (gives examples on making a boat, costumes, etc) or build a tent to be the whale and pretend you are swallowed alive. I feel like most people don't have the time and means to do such elaborate suggestions. When my child asked if we could do these ideas I had to be realistic and say no. It was hard to watch him deflate like a balloon and it felt like some of the enthusiasm over what he had just learned left him also.

Love this series of inductive Bible study for kids! I have used them many years in Sunday School. Kay Authur and Janna Arndt are the best!

I have several grandchildren and am always looking for ways to help them get grounded in the fundamentals of the Bible at their level. These books are great! They enjoy doing the study ... because they don't live local it takes longer to go through the material but is rewarding. I take Precept studies for adults myself. Right now I'm in Hebrews and it is a soul searching study.

We absolutely LOVE Kay Arthur Bible studies for kiddos!!!! Such a great way to teach those little ones to dig into the Word.

good condition sent it to family
