Dr. Seuss was born Theodor Geisel in Springfield, Massachusetts on March 2, 1904. After attending Dartmouth College and Oxford University, he began a career in advertising. His advertising cartoons, featuring Quick, Henry, the Flit!, appeared in several leading American magazines. Dr. Seuss's first children's book, And To Think That I Saw It On Mulberry Street, hit the market in 1937, and the world of children's literature was changed forever! In 1957, Seuss's

The Cat in the Hat became the prototype for one of Random House's best-selling series, Beginner Books. This popular series combined engaging stories with outrageous illustrations and playful sounds to teach basic reading skills. Brilliant, playful, and always respectful of children, Dr. Seuss charmed his way into the consciousness of four generations of youngsters and parents. In the process, he helped kids learn to read. Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1984 and three Academy Awards, Seuss was the author and illustrator of 44 children's books, some of which have been made into audiocassettes, animated television specials, and videos for children of all ages. Even after his death in 1991, Dr. Seuss continues to be the best-selling author of children's books in the world.

We love Dr. Seuss and we wanted this CD, and I was really excited to see John Lithgow as a narrator because he is my favorite actor and performer. PROS- John Lithgow did an amazing job- Some famous stories CONS- Other narrators were not really exciting. I can actually do a much more articulated and attention catching job that will pin toddlers and kids to their chairs- Two CDs with zero track information on them. Where is Lorax? Which CD has Cat? No idea.- Music kind of ridiculous, going on an off randomly and not supporting the story. NPR's Snap Judgement does a much better job doing radio pieces, you can literally visualize rooms, scenes and other details by just listening to their sound support, and they aim for adult listeners. I definitely expected that from a kiddo CD. I will test it on my kid and update my review. Right now I'm guessing that she'll lose interest soon.

These are seriously great stories read aloud beautifully. I listen to a lot of audio books, and this is one of the best children's audio sets I've ever heard. The stories are read aloud by great actors/story tellers. It's very entertaining for adults, too. Many of the stories are new to me, and very good. They open up a lot of questions for 4 year olds and their parents; more things to talk about in the car!

Play this while my kids play with their blocks, ages 1 and 2. We have read a few of these books, so they are familiar with a few of the stories and they love listening! Especially to The Cat in the Hat and How the Grinch Stole Christmas!

classic book. Bought for my niece and she loves it! I also plan to buy my own children one when they are old enough

I'm in the car more than I'd like with my kids (1.5 and 4) and this is really fun for them to listen to! We own quite a few audio-books (Frog and Toad, Kevin Henkes, Barefoot Books), and this, along with Frog and Toad, is their favorite. The narration here is great. It's so fun for me to hear familiar voices (Kelsey Grammar reading Cat in the Hat, for example). Each narrator really captures the rhythm of Seuss's rhymes. My boys love The Grinch Who Stole Christmas most of all! I have not found the background music too loud at all...actually my kids really like that part and I think it really adds to the appeal of this recording.

Has a lot of stars voices

Fantastic listen! My 3-old loves it!

Great item
