Vertigo – The Suicide Of Lukas

Synopsis

NOTE OF CLARIFICATION The first publication of this book was considered to have an inductive content to suicidal practices. In order to follow legal guidelines, this English version had modified part of its original content in compliance to Article 122 of the Penal Code of Brazil. The author is subjected to the penalty of detention if does not comply with this law.

Multiverse Delirium or Fantasy? Synchronicity, Coincidence or Destiny? Parallel Universe, Hallucination or Fugue of reality? - READ THIS BOOK AND DISCOVER VERTYGO! Amid thoughts of suicide, and through characters alluding to Greek mythology, this book will guide you through a fascinating, unpredictable journey surrounded by mysteries: incredible coincidences that challenge chances (Synchronicity) and the coexistence of Parallel Universes, which can only be accessed when there is a rupture with lucidity due to some extremely traumatic event and when a wild person begins to live real life simultaneously within Alternate Reality... And as far as his friends and relatives tell, something like that happened to Lukas that morning when he decided to die [...]
