I found this travel guidebook enough helpful and well written. Though plan not yet fixed but my family members have a plan to go Glasgow next month and for the purpose of knowing all the coolest things about this beautiful city, I picked this travel guidebook last week. It really helped me a lot and throughout it I have come to know where to go for shopping while traveling in Glasgow, best parks & views, local culture & favorite places, restaurant & bar locations, historical places and much more. I already told few coolest things few of my family members and they were wondering while listening me. Anyways, I think this book will be good source of info & helpful travel guides before heading Glasgow, so if you have any plan like us then don't forget to read this book.

Glasgow, Scotland is a beautiful city and I am visiting it this December! Yay for #travelgoals. It's an on-the-budget travel though so I was hoping to only visit places and do cool stuff while on my vacation and this book was a good reference. They have pretty good and indeed cool recommendations.

cheap - and for a good reason.No context, no introduction to the place, very few examples. Waste of money.

What about historical places? Not a mention in this guide. Not a guide for someone who wants to learn more about Glasgow.
