Perunthalaivarâ Kamarajar (Tamil)

Synopsis

In today's world, where the Spectrum scandals are being a great issue, people are eagerly waiting for politicians like Kamarajar who can reform the nation. Because he was an honest politician who lived a hermit life and strived hard only for the welfare of citizens. While he was a leader of National Congress party, he made a rule that the senior members of congress party have to involve themselves in social work renouncing their positions. He set an example in doing so and resigned his position as a leader. Overwhelmed by this act of Kamarajar, The President Nehru was downhearted. In spite of his sister's grandson obtaining good marks and getting seat in medical counselling, Kamarajar did not recommend him for medicine rather he recommended him to go for Agriculture College in Coimbatore. Through all these activities many people got inspired and he was called as 'Perunthalaivar'. Schools in villages, Workshops for workers, dams for farming, and free food in schools were all introduced by Kamarajar. For all his good works he was called as 'Karmaveerar'. Author S.K.Murugan presented the instances of Kamarajar's life with the evidence of documents. Kamarajar's life instances encourage youngsters to get into politics and to be honest like him.
