Customer Reviews

My husband and I travel a lot and we always like to make research before the trip but also take a guidebook along. This book leads us to what was most important for us to see while in Shanghai. Good concise information and easy to find. A great book if you have less than a week in Shanghai and you want to hit the highlights.

I buy a lot of travel books, and this is maybe the most disappointing I've seen. It essentially looks like something created in MS Word by an author looking to take a week spent in Shanghai and turn it into a book. There are no illustrations, maps, or pictures. "Don't judge a book by its cover," as the cover is the most eye-catching part of this book. The text is -- well, it reads more like a book report or maybe a college essay on Shanghai, and less a travel guide.
