Customer Reviews

The only thing this book should be used for is to compile a list of several main towns to visit. Beyond that, it is useless. For experiences and smaller towns and villages it is useless. Totally disappointing!

Not bad not good too basic. No great recommendations for restaurants, hotels

Easy to read and very informative.

I was expecting more and better places. It is ok as an overview but not detailed. If you are new to Sicily this will be of help. If you have to Sicily several times you need a more detailed guide.

This was a very good book with both pictures as well as detailed descriptions of each site or location. I really liked the fact that they included a lot of the history in each site when possible since that is what many travelers are hoping to pick up during their trip. I love knowing the background of places that I visit.
