Roland Lazenby's books have received recognition as "Quick Picks" for reluctant readers by the Young Adult Library Service Association. He is editor of Lindy's Pro Basketball Annual.

Bought this book for my son who is one of the biggest Jazz fans ever! He loved the book and stated he enjoyed learning some unknown facts about these two classic star players.

It was a decent read. I enjoyed the background in Jerry Sloan. Someday the Jazz will win a championship. Someday.

Big disappointment. Read Stockton's autobiography instead.

If you followed the Jazz during their glory days . you will surely love reading this book...many great memories....

Always good reading about these two incredible NBA players. Real examples of what a Team is about!

This was a fun little gift for my husband who is a jazz fan and loves John Stockton and Karl Malone.

After reading this book, I have a feeling that this book is more about Jerry Sloan than Stockton and Malone.

This book concerned more Jerry Sloan and His coaching philosophy than a phenomenon of "Stock-Karl duo". This is a short book worthy of reading and well written, but I couldn't find information which could be an absolute special. If you are a basketball expert (coach, player or fan) you know something about JAZZ TEAM and this book won't give something which is really "unknown"
