EZ TO READ/COMPLETE/WILL TAKE WITH ME

The worst part of this kindle version (I view it though kindle application on my iphone) is that all the maps are simply not usable. Although you can zoom in, the resolution is simply not there, you can't even see the street names. This defeats all the purpose to have an electronic guide handy when travel. Glad that it only set me back $3.61. The content of the book is OK but nothing stands out. But it is strange and a bit distasteful that the author likes to point out B&Bs that are owned and operated by gays, as if people should care one way or the other. But to the author's credit, he also listed certain areas in the cities that not everyone would feel comfortable strolling by, which you usually don't find in every tour book. I have been to Montreal and Vancouver multiple times, as safe and beautiful as the Canadian cities are in general, I had my goose pumps several time. Get a printed version. Kindle version highly not recommended.

Bought this for a trip to Quebec City. Has a fair amount of information about the city and its attractions. Will be helpful to us in our visit.

Greatest book I have ever read. Beautifully written. This man is a genius and I would like very much to shake his hand. A true master of his craft; incredibly knowledgeable.
