Customer Reviews

I bought this for my granddaughter who just started her 2nd year of piano lessons. Since I know a few guitar chords, we plan to learn a few Christmas songs for the holidays. Simple songs all in key of C, I think.

My kids are learning pieces from this book for their Christmas concert. The pieces are challenging for them but not so difficult that they are discouraged. They started the Faber 2A lesson book this fall and this is a great complement to their lessons.

My 12 year old who has been taking lessons on and off for 3 years did well with this book.

The Fabers always do a wonderful job arranging music and have chosen nice selections, including sacred and secular Christmas songs. The thing I like best about using the Faber Christmas books is that I know my students using the corresponding lesson book will be at just the right level.

great book, interesting pieces.

I bought a bunch of different books from these authors and I like all of them. I enjoy the fact that the songs are different and that they shipped to me quickly. Will buy from them again

The book is great - but when postage is added it end up being more than a store bought one

I teach piano and this is my favorite Christmas book for students in the 2A level. Students almost always choose this book over other Christmas books at this level.
