Customer Reviews

I like this series very much. This book was a little short - I like a bit more action when reading, but this was no less interesting!

I always live the stories that have Chevy in them, His antics make you laugh. I can't wait until the next story,

This story was a bit different but in a good way. A fun, lighthearted read that won't disappoint. Give it a try Delightful story with quite a few twists. Solving a murder, getting a job, fun with friends. Give this story a try!

These characters have become familiar, with new additions fitting right into the rural setting. The plots are light but intriguing enough to allow for plenty of action and witty interplay between the principals.

Love this author!

I love Mary Hiker books. I love dogs and reading. So we are a good match. Her books are interesting and not too long. And the chapters are short. I look forward to her next book.
