Customer Reviews

I do like it alot, theres probably 50-75 keepers in here, just seems like a lot of the receipes are generic items that dont need to be published. like a plain salad with chopped veggies and low fat dressing...BUT for people who are brand new to healthy eating and havent touched much of anything green in a long time. this is a great book to get you on track and help ween you into healthy cooking. The time element is huge, a big reason I used to have a terrible diet was convenience, i didnt want to spend 1 hr preparing a super healthy tasty meal, when i could slap together a burger and fries in 15 minutes. This book makes it tougher to find a reason to 'cheat'.

I love pictures in recipe books and this one has plenty. Everyday type ingredients fun and easy. Quite a few Simply Filling recipes too.

Another great addition to my other cookbooks. I love the split up in the book of 15, 20, 30 and slow cooked meals lets you pick something great to eat in the time frame you have , you will love this book!

Nowhere in the product page is this statement contained:"Note: Many recipes in this book were previously released in the Momentum Cookbook and Pantry to Plate, both Weight Watchers meeting room cookbooks."One must buy the cookbook and look at the copyright page to discover this fact. And in the Kindle edition, the copyright page is at the BACK of the book, so it doesn't appear in the sample book.Although there are interesting and yummy-sounding recipes contained in this title, and they are quick and mostly simple, since I own both of the cookbooks cited as the source of "many" recipes, I'm not willing to part with $9.99.Further, the Apple iBooks version is completely formatted attractively. If I decide I really want this title, I'll buy it in iBooks.As with too many "repurposed content" eBooks, the Index lists all of the index titles from the print book but none of them are hyperlinked making a search, always slow in Kindle, necessary.

Offers great recipes on all kinds of different foods. Easy to make and new ideas. I absolutely love it. It sits on my table!!

The recipes were good, but not outstanding . Wish it had more meal pictures. I am very visual when deciding if I am interested in making a new recipe and more often than not, I skip a recipe with no photo. Would not have purchased if I had seen it in person at the bookstore.

Love the recipes in this book so I sent a copy to my mom! Tasty, fast and easy - great ways to help a person eat healthy. Delivered on time and in great shape.

This was an ok cookbook. However, I found the index very confusing to look up recipes. They referenced 2-3 pages for each recipe which I found was not handy for my purposes.
