Ray Marshall is the paper engineer behind Paper Blossoms: A Book of Beautiful Bouquets for the Table (winner of the 2012 Meggendorfer Prize) and many other pop-up masterpieces. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

I LOVE this book!!! I bought this for my 89 year old mother for Valentine's Day. (You'd think she was 69!) She volunteered for many years at an art museum and has a profound love of art and design. She LOVES this book -- any company that visits her home get to look at it, as well. I'm thrilled! You start running out of gift options for an 89 year old!! Ha!! :)

I BOUGHT THIS FOR MYSELF AND IT LOOKS SO BEAUTIFUL YOU DON'T HAVE TO PUT ANYTHING ELSE ON YOUR TABLE THEY ARE , MASTER PIECES.

Or you could just buy this book because a picture is worth a thousand words! Incredible.

Beautiful books with pop up flowers that are just lovely to look at. These were bought for my 91 year old mother who had Alzheimers. In her last days, she enjoyed looking at this book, along with another of this same kind of book.

It's still pretty, but definitely not as fancy and beautiful as the previous one. I bought the previous book and everyone loves it. Bought another for mother in law. This one is okay. There are something wrong with the flower design, even with the color, also the tulips on the first page is too simple.

Gave as a gift. I do not think she liked it. I love the book. It is hard to give a daughter in-law anything. Nothing is good enough.

A number of beautiful flower arrangements

This is a magnificent display of centerpiece flower arrangements with the freshness and feel of birds fluttering amongst them. Beautiful and Well Done!
