Unstoppable: The Incredible Power Of Faith In Action

Synopsis

Being unstoppable is about believing and achieving. It's about having faith in yourself, your talents and your purpose and, most of all, in God's great love and His divine plan for your life. Millions around the world recognize the smiling face and inspirational message of Nick Vujicic. Despite being born without arms or legs, Nick's challenges have not kept him from enjoying great adventures, a fulfilling and meaningful career, and loving relationships. Nick has overcome trials and hardships by focusing on the promises that he was created for a unique and specific purpose, that his life has value and is a gift to others, and that no matter the despair and hard times in life, God is always present. Nick credits his success in life to the power that is unleashed when faith takes action. But how does that happen? In Unstoppable Nick addresses adversity and difficult circumstances that many people face today, including:

- Personal crises
- Relationship issues
- Career and job challenges
- Health and disability concerns
- Self-destructive thoughts, emotions, and addictions
- Bullying, persecution, cruelty, and intolerance
- Balance in body, mind, heart, and spirit

A Q&A With Author Nick Vujicic You came to Christ at a young age; have you ever felt despondent enough (as a Christian) to consider taking your own life? I gave my life to Jesus at age fifteen when I read in the Bible that Jesus knew that the works of God would be displayed through the blind man in John 9. However, before having faith in Jesus, I was angry at God and blamed Him for my lack of limbs and the fact He didn't seem to care. I thought He'd forgotten me or wasn't real at all was because He didn't answer me when I asked with much faith for limbs miraculously. Neither did He answer me when I asked why He had done this. Because of being bullied at school, experiencing a lot of negative attention, feeling like I was a burden to my parents, and not seeing a right future, I attempted to commit suicide by drowning myself in a bath tub. As I was in the process, the thought of leaving my parents with much grief helped me to not go through with the suicide. It was by God's grace that I am still here, and I can hear the words ring true in Jeremiah 29: 11-14. What advice can you offer to other people who are mentally or physically disabled, and feel like their life is "over" and worthless? Any negative lies and thoughts that come in are not from God if the statements are not in-sync with the Word, the heart of God. Every day, we must pray that the Lord guards our hearts and minds as we battle with principalities and powers of darkness. We have the truth. Remind yourself of the truth of your identity, purpose and destiny in Christ. Put on the full armor of God. Ask God for the gift of faith to believe every loving word of the Bible and the discipline to have time in worship or prayer or reading of the Scriptures to further the growth of your faith. Take one day at a time. We all have a fear of being lonely. Some have been abandoned, but Jesus is with you. Trust Him, and if you don't know Him, seek Him. Describe an average day for Nick? How long it takes to get ready in the mornings? As a teenager, I wanted to prove to myself that I could be independent, and it would take me an hour to get ready, brush my teeth, go to the restroom, shower and dress myself. These days I like to focus on what gives me more joy and save my energy for the things that are truly rewarding after proving to myself that I could be independent. So, I have caregivers who take care of me and get me ready especially when traveling. How did you meet your wife? My wife Kanae and I fell in love at the top of a Bell Tower in McKinney, Texas at the "Adriatica." The fully story is in my book, but it was at a night where I only spoke to 16 people, and we watched the Butterfly Circus. I shared about the ministry's goals and heart in reaching the world. Fireworks were in our minds and hearts when our eyes connected that night... and for the rest of the story, get the book. What qualities or characteristics attracted you to her? Do you plan to have children soon? She is my best friend, and I adore her. She has unimaginable grace, love, patience and meekness. She is such a focused and gentle giver. We are hoping to have children in a few years, but you never know what the Lord wants. Where do you live/attend church? With living in Southern California but traveling quite a lot over the years, it has been difficult to find a home church that we truly see our children growing up in long term. But we genuinely enjoy the fellowship of the Apostolic Christian Church in Pasadena and love their hearts in valuing the family-style congregation. You minister around the world to children, churches and businessmen. What message is on your heart at the moment? In such a world and generation, there is so much information and entertainment and vicious pressure to be someone you're not yet or to get something you don't have yet. The message to preach is the truth. To know our true worth, knowing that we are all loved, and we are here for a greater purpose. Tell us about your book - what inspired you to write it, what do you hope it will achieve, who is it for? Before writing Unstoppable, I personally went through two major life-changing experiences that I learnt so much in and through. I went through a personal crisis in December 2010. Then I met my wife and started courting her at the end of 2010. That's why I wrote Unstoppable. I love how God lets us go through difficult challenges to help each other and encourage one another. That's what family is for. I also speak, write, sing on YouTube "Something More" and act in the short film "Butterfly Circus." I want to communicate a message of hope and love that continues to evolve as I walk closer to Jesus.

NICK VUJICIC is a motivational speaker and the director of the nonprofit organization, Life Without Limbs. Nick has become a great inspiration to people around the world, regularly speaking to large crowds about overcoming obstacles and achieving dreams. A longtime resident of Australia, he now lives in southern California with his wife, Kanae.

Nick Vujicic to those of you who have never heard of him is an amazing man from Australia he is an evangelist and motivational speaker born with tetra-amelia syndrome (Born with no limbs). This book is about his life from beginning to end, one that will have you thinking about your own struggles and your own life. Nick has traveled to many places learned many things that even people with all their limbs have never tried. Nick has inspired me in many ways and I read his first book with my E-Reader "Life without limbs" one I too highly recommend reading. Unstoppable would be my favorite of the two being 240 pages long and has pictures of his wife, people he has met, and some of him as a kid. Please check this book out you will not be disappointed, teens, and adults can read this book with no problem and it may even help you in what you yourself have deep in your heart struggling with.

Remarkable man! If you're needing a story about faith and looking for a modern day example of it read this book. Everyone has their challenges and everyone knows life is not fair (if they have lived long enough and are looking on this website for books then they know life is not fair) then they will see a little of themselves in this book. I only gave it a rating 3 stars because it did not touch me in a place that other books have regarding struggles and faith. This might sound crazy but I sense that Nick has had his disability long enough that he has learned to make some adaptations plus he has some help. Some of the stories I have read about there is no time for adaptation or adjustments there is only torment, strife and suffering with the thought that I shall be free of this someday and in the meantime it is there a faith that carries them through day to day without any external support. I think it all depends on what you're looking for.

After reading life without limits two years ago, I just had to read this one! Two years ago I spent my birthday in Borders browsing book, Life without limits was in the front of the store and it caught my attention. Two years later to the day I received a Kindle for my birthday and Unstoppable was the first book I purchased last Monday! It only took a week to read. Being that I also have been physically disabled my whole life, spina Bifida, and now a social worker. Its the best feeling working with them and getting compliments like, I feel like you were a God send or I hate to say thus but I'm also glad you are in a wheelchair, because you get it. This book reaffirmed my faith because I'm too hard on myself! I did relate to Nick in a lot of ways. I soul be honored to meet him one day!

When reading this book, it seems as if Nick is speaking to you one on one. Like, after reading you get a sense of what being a faith filled Christian is like. I highly recommend this book to all. He doesnt write in a way that you feel bad for him bc of his disabilities (i like this fact). His life is different, but Nick relates his life to the average Joe in a way that you will just understand God and life more.

Nick is such an inspiration. I feel blessed by his teachings and now by this book. I recommend this book to anyone struggling with faith.

Shows you that you can fall from the top of a mountain and hit a coma but that does not mean it is the end. You will be rescued and fly not back to the top of the mountain but way above it. I agree with everything in the book except that Jesus may peace be upon Him himself is God. Jesus prayed to God. I believe in the God that Jesus prayed to.

Once again, Nick writes from the heart about life and its challenges from a God perspective. He paints a clear picture that God created each of us for a purpose and that God uses our disabilities or challenges to connect with others. This book is a great reminder that we all have value and purpose and that when we reach out to others, we are blessed in return.

This young man has an incredible spirit of overcoming obstacles in his life, and in sharing his story, he encourages and motivates others in overcoming their struggles. What I love the best about his testimony is that you can see the power of God in his life, and for anyone who does not believe in God, I think this book would cause them to reconsider His reality and His power to change a life. I'm an avid reader and have been most of my adult life - if I could only recommend one book, it would be this one!! Actually, the number one would be the Bible, and this one number two.
