A Lady In The Making (Prairie Dreams Book 3)

Synopsis

Millie Evans has changed. She wants to leave her sordid life behind, while her brother chooses to join a gang of outlaws to get a stake for the future. Millie leaves her angry brother, hoping her cousin in Cheyenne can help her start a new life. But partway into her trip, David Stone boards the stage, and Millie is confronted with her past. She and her brother had tried to swindle David out of his fortune, and now he's decided to return home to England. Millie expresses her remorse and even returns items she stole from David, but he remains unconvinced. That doubt is intensified when the stage is held up by her brother's gang. David finds Millie fighting beside him, even though her brother is mortally wounded. He begins to believe her heart has changed as he watches her throughout their journey. Will they allow God's forgiveness to complete the transformation, or will the past prove too much to overcome?

Customer Reviews

This series, books 1 & 2 are AWESOME!!! GREAT READS...this one...really lags. From the first two books the main lady in this one was not my fav starting off. This book just felt boring to me. While Susan had me reading book 1&2 in record time, this book was just blah. Story plot was boring and cast didn't help.SPOILER: The main male also was written not to like the lady in the 2nd book, so its hard to see them together in book 3 talking.

I enjoyed this series overall and was excited to see David and Millie in this one and see where their story went and learn of Millie's transformation. I would have liked some more info towards the end on Perry and for David to know who was truly after him, as well as that person getting some kind of punishment. A few more chapters to wrap those ends up. It had a satisfying conclusion, just with it had had some more details in an epilogue.

Good series by Davis and I was glad to get this otherwise hard to find copy. Recommend.

It was a good ending to the series. David and Millie are right for each other. I didn't like either MERRILEAH OR Perry very well both were to full of greed and stuck on what was good for just them. Randolph seemed to be happy with not being the earl of Stoneford. I was also happy to hear how Daniel and Anne ADAMS were fairing. Even though the book was about Millie and David. I've definitely enjoyed the books by this author. Will try to read more by her in the future. If anybody likes HISTORICAL WESTERNS they will enjoy this one.

I liked the fact that it was well written, entertaining and clean. I highly recommend this author. .She is a delight.

I'm struggling to finish this book. The storyline is just OK. It feels like it is dragging. I force myself to read a little of it each night. I'm at chapter 12 and if it doesn't pick up by chapter 15 I'm giving up.

I love this author! She knows how to make you keep page turning and stay up late or get up early to finish the book. As a faith based story, it's full of inspiration. Thanks.

I enjoyed the book immensely, good summer read with aChristian undertone. The book had a very nice finish!
