I wish it was longer but I can't complain about 69 pages of awesome dragon-riding adventures! Hiccup and friends are trying to get Berk back to normal after the events of the 2nd movie when they are alerted to a dragon problem on a neighboring island. To escape the rising tension among his fellow vikings, Hiccup heads off to see what kind of assistance they can offer. It soon becomes clear that dragons are only part of the problem.

Can't get enough of the Dragons. Hiccup and Toothless are my dreamteam. I enjoy graphic novels anyway, and this one is a great next step in the series after the second movie. Hiccup is the Chieftan of Berk, but it's a community in upheaval after the loss of Stoic the Vast. And Toothless is now the Alpha of All Dragons, which is pretty cool, but brings its own set of issues. How can hiccup turn his back on a needy village? How can he leave his own in turmoil? Her and his friends have a lot to learn about being in charge, but the ending is both humorous and touching. If you like the movies and enjoyed the animated series, you'll like this graphic novel.

Quick read, it is a comic after all, and pretty enjoyable. Showed up in great condition not damaged from shipping and was a decent price. Would recommend for any How to Train Your Dragon fan trying to get through waiting for the next movie and season for Race to the Edge.

As a fan of Dark Horse comics and How to Train your Dragon films, I enjoyed this immensely. Hopefully this can tide us over till the third film in 2018!

As a huge fan of the movies and the show, I thought this comic was a great addition into the story. It was a bit odd - but still great. The story moves so fast! It could have been twice as long.

In love! Great story, would recommend. Even though I would have loved more, it has some great Easter eggs hidden in the design. Very excited as it adds to the hype! 🐉

Great story, particularly the idea of a human who believes himself to be changing into a dragon

Great graphic novel. Loved the references that were made to the second film. Really fun story with twists and turns that were unexpected. I highly recommend this graphic novel to fans of the How to Train Your Dragon franchise.
