This is another self-published amateur effort by who knows who because there is no author listed, nor is there a table of contents or index or photos. It isn't even paginated but it probably is about fifty pages. The information is OK but can easily be found elsewhere, and all this booklet provides is one paragraph about each attraction. So basically you're buying 100 paragraphs for $7.99. If you're getting it free on Kindle, then, obviously, it can't hurt to include it in your travel literature.

That's a highly unusual travel guide. It doesn't include a list of highly traditional things and sights to explore. Instead it helps you discover the true vibe of Costa Rica, feel it's pulse by diving into the local life with its festivals, parties, bars and etc. It's indeed an awesome guide for daring travellers.

I recently used this book to plan my trip to Costa Rica. It gave invaluable information about lodging, food and fun. I found the information to be very accurate and the recommendations of things to do to be right on point !!

The book was not what I was looking for to find out information about Costa Rica. I wanted more detail and information.

Good to know few things about Costa Rica love it!!

We are planning to visit Costa Rica and my sister have this copy to guide us around the place. I really appreciated the effort of the author who gathered detailed information how to enjoy Costa Rica.

Nice book! This book guideline really amazing this book has full information about Costa Rica. This book helps you find the best places for your Costa Rican adventure!!
