I bought for my trip to Punta Cana and there was not too much info on that area.

Book is ok; in the past I purchased other tourist books that had great information, lots of photos and better description. I wouldn't NOT suggest it, but I wouldn't purchase it again.

Sorry, but for 8.99 it is so not worth it. So small and very little information about the area and resorts. Maybe the Dom Re is that small and boring or else they need better writers. Find websites and read those!!!!

This book was decent, we got the kindle version, which was somewhat tough to follow. Decent info, could have given a little more realistic experiences - only talked about the good things and did not give any cons. We liked the Fodor's way better.

This book contained almost all the information I needed. However, it gave the impression that U.S. - Punta Cana flights were few when actually AA has several regularly scheduled flights to and from Miami each day. The book also was light on what immunizations are advisable for travel there.

This was a gift, so I did not use it. But it looked really good.

A lot of great information that helped us on our vacation to the DR

This book was actually my first Frommer's travel guide and it is excellent. Would recommend to all and is easy to read
