Walking On Rhodes. Paul Van Bodengraven & Marco Barten

Synopsis

This full-colour walking guidebook is intended to reveal the contrasts confronted by walkers on the Greek island of Rhodes - the green in May, the dry dust in September; crowded beaches versus small villages where you will hardly find any tourists; a modern shopping town; and traditional character houses. The guide "Walking on Rhodes" describes twenty day-tours, spread across the island. The length of the walks varies from 4.4 to 22 km. Some routes are more difficult walks of a couple of hours or an entire day, whilst others are easier and shorter. The nature, the quietness, the climate, all make Rhodes an excellent destination for a walking holiday. It includes: 20 circular walks with detailed route information; 80 photos; and, Introduction on Rhodes.

Customer Reviews

Paul van Bodengraven and Marco Barten are both passionate hikers. They have published six walking guides so far. Besides their regular jobs, each year they use their holidays to work on a new walking guide, on destinations that haven't been covered by other series. Each walk is made and described by themselves. They also take all the photos. The concept of their guides differs from any other series with much emphasis placed on pictures.

To celebrate our upcoming 40th anniversary and retirements, we plan to take our children and grandchildren to Rhodes in October 2015. This book is delightfully written and the photos make me want to take every walk mentioned!
