I love that this comic takes place in the Clone Wars era. My favorite Star Wars comics were the ones that are now Legends that took place during this era. Depa Billaba is featured in this book and its so cool to see her interacting with Kanan. Depa doing the tests blindfolded was really cool. There is a lot of action in this book. The art style is perfect for it. Of course, there are references to other Star Wars characters. Rae Sloane!!! And I thought I saw the younglings from the Clone Wars tv show, but I may have been mistaken. The crew of Rebels also appears and they are drawn more realistic. I give this book a 4/5. I definitely recommend it to Star Wars fans of the tv shows Clone Wars and Rebels.

Volume 1 was better but only because I thought they ended this a little soon. I think Marvel gave the green light to this series only to cancel it a couple issues in. With that said it was a great continuation from volume one. It gives even more back story to Kanan! Great comic.

Part 2 of the back story to my favorite Jedi; Kanan Jarus. As it goes for the story you definitely need Volume 1 for the back story's conclusion.

As I continue to fill in the gaps of the new Star Wars canon, I am completely emerged in the characters and the relationships they have with another. This is a great back story that fits with New Dawn and leads to the hit tv show Star Wars Rebels.

I am a huge SW Rebels fan. What a great read, beautiful artwork/design and a definitely interesting story about a character that I truly enjoy. MARVEL outdid themselves. Don't miss it!

I really enjoyed this series. It had a story, developing characters, and emotional depth. My only hang up with it is that it seemed somewhat short and the action scenes were not shown in as much detail as I would have liked. Still, it is a great story, and together with The Last Padawan Volume 1, fills in some of the gaps of Kanan Jarrus' past. I recommend it for anyone who is a fan of either Rebels or the Clone Wars.

Once again another well written, and well illustrated graphic novel. For the Star Wars world setting. Now I'm waiting for book 3.

Bought this for my sister, and she loves it.
