Al Katkowsky is a singer, songwriter, musician, and voiceover artist who is the creator of the well known "Question of the Day" app.

'Question of the Day' is more than a book. It's a great way to spend an evening with family, friends or those you want to get to know better. The questions are thought provoking and challenges one to answer honestly, thereby revealing a part of oneself that may have been hidden or not readily apparent in one's day to day persona. This book can be used daily by an individual for further introspection, but is much more fun being utilized as a game with two or more people who want to spend a few hours in meaningful and fun conversation. The book is user friendly, and gives the reader guidance at the bottom of each page with respect to a scale of 'heavy' to 'light' questions. In addition, some questions provide hints and examples that may provoke additional discussion among the group. The book is a great way to get to know people better and will stimulate hours of thought provoking discussion among friends or those who want to become friends.

Entertaining for all. Great for social stimulation. Excellent!

I love this book! The questions are very interesting to think about. I have already given it to several of my friends as a gift.
