Gr 2-4 "Heidi Heckelbeck can't wait to attend the fall festival, but when an onslaught of sniffles threatens her fun, the little witch takes matters into her own hands and tries to cast a spell. Burris's kid-friendly drawings appear on almost every page, making this enchanting title perfect for emerging readers not quite ready for Jill Murphy's "Worst Witch" series (Candlewick). --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

Wanda Coven has always loved magic. When she was little, she used to make secret potions from smooshed shells and acorns. Then she would pretend to transport herself and her friends to enchanted places. Now she visits other worlds through writing. Wanda lives with her husband and son in San Jose, California. They have three cats: Hilda, Agnes, and Claw-dia. Priscilla Burris has illustrated numerous books and materials for children, parents, and teachers. She enjoys cake painting and creating art for products that include murals, greeting cards, and rubber stamps. Priscilla lives with her family in Southern California.

my 6-year-old daughter absolutely loves these books; I have had a hard time finding a series of books that she enjoys and we finally found one that she looks forward to reading - so happy! btw, I also do not mind reading these with her/I enjoy them (unlike some of the other books we have tried) which is also nice

Although I haven't read this book yet I'm sure I won't be disappointed. All the Heidi Heckelbeck books I've read so far have been so cute! I read them with an 8 year old and I'm getting ready to introduce my granddaughter to these characters. They are funny and easy to relate to.

This is a great book and you should read it. It has funny and scary stuff in it. I didn't like it when Heidi Heckelbeck got sick and couldn't go to the carnival. You should get this book and read more of it.

Good that seekers scary like the story thAt is mostly it tell the author Wanda I love slash heart her books

This series is so fun. Heidi is a character that anyone can relate to. She might be like you, or like a sister, or like a friend. She's fun and entertaining. But, quite the little character.

Daughter loves these books!

Really good but a little sad when she does not do the spell right and then has frog voice. It is really good when you get to the haunted house part.

My daughter loves the Heidi Heckelbeck series. Fun and entertaining.
