Country Cooking From A Redneck Kitchen

Synopsis

Few people know that national pie champion Francine Bryson got her start on the cooking contest circuit at age sixteen with a savory stuffed pork loin that won first place. In Country Cooking from a Redneck Kitchen, Francine invites you into her home to share recipes for everything that graces her Southern table: chicken dinners, savory pies, Sunday suppers to serve the preacher, make-and-take casseroles, dips and other redneck whatnots, backyard barbecue favorites and, of course, three chapters devoted to her celebrated baked goods, including her most-requested holiday sweets. Feeding people is what Francine loves to do, and here are simple instructions for 125 dishes with 60 color photographs to help you to bring her Southern charm to your table.

FRANCINE BRYSON is the author of the bestselling Blue Ribbon Baking from a Redneck Kitchen, a Southern Independent Booksellers Alliance Book Award finalist and Okra Pick. She has won more than 200 local and national baking competitions and was the runner-up and crowd favorite on CBS's The American Baking Competition. Bryson, a member of the American Pie Council, lives with her husband in Pickens, South Carolina.

I'm in LOVE with this new cookbook! Country Cooking from a Redneck Kitchen is warm, charming, deliciously on the mark and mouthwatering page after page. You'll find recipes for beans cooked with ham hocks, corn fritters, taco salad, holiday whole roast ham, mama's tuna casserole, chicken and rice, shrimp and grits, chicken pot pie, meaty stuffed peppers, fried liver with onion gravy, hamburger stew, corned beef hash, slaw for the family barbecue, ribs at home, ginger-lime chicken wings, homemade cream of chicken soup - AND a slew of dessert recipes too, such as apple almond tart, sweet potato spice cake, strawberry custard trifle, schoolyard peanut butter bars, chocolate pound cake, buttermilk pecan skillet cake and brown sugar pie! I mean, how delicious does all of that sound!? This book is filled with mouthwatering recipes and delicious looking photography. I love how each recipe traces you throughout Francine's family and her history. Very interesting! I highly recommend you order this book AND check out her first book (which is just as fabulous) called "Blue Ribbon Baking from a Redneck Kitchen". Read my review on her first one and order them both - today! Trust me - you'll thank me later...

Wow. This is a great book. I am trying to take one cookbook and try new recipes, and the first one I have tried is the Pork Chop Casserole on Page 76. My husband loves mushrooms, not my favorite, but I tried it anyway. Oh my gosh, you need to try this recipes. The pork chops are layered on top of the potatoes, and then you make a mushroom cream sauce and cover it and cook it. And I can't tell you how good this is, because there are no words. I don't even like mushrooms that much, and I even liked it. I am looking forward to making all the other Southern dishes,

My kids have tried a couple of these said they were very good, looking forward to trying them myself
" If I Get My Book Back "

Love this book. I bought it months ago and have made at least 12 recipes from it and been very pleased with them all. Can't wait for Francine's next book!

Another great book from Francine!

Looks like some good recipes!

great recipes to try

I just got my cookbook today. Just looking through it, I knew I was going to love it! So.....I went ahead and ordered it for my daughter, and it's on its way!!! I love to cook, and it's written like I wrote it myself. Love from a true Southern gal.....(from Texas) !! ;-)
